

Transatlantic Studies Seminar

Organized by the University of Macedonia and the U.S. Consulate General in Thessaloniki with the kind support of the Journalists' Union of Macedonia and Thrace

“Civil Rights in the U.S. and Europe”

April 2-4, 2009

Journalists' Union of Macedonia and Thrace
5 Stratigou Kallari street, Thessaloniki

Thursday, April 2, 2009

Civil Rights - the Beginning

| | |
|---------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 16:30 - 17:00 | Arrival of Students, Registration |
| 17:00-17:15 | Welcome Remarks Hoyt B. Yee, Consul General of the United States of America in Thessaloniki David Goldfield, Robert Lee Bailey Professor of History, University of North Carolina – Charlotte Theodosios Karvounarakis, Associate Professor, Department of International and European Studies, University of Macedonia |
| 17:15–18:30 | Lecture: “Toward a More Perfect Union” David Goldfield, Robert Lee Bailey Professor of History, University of North Carolina – Charlotte Discussion |
| 18:30–18:45 | Break |
| 18:45–19:15 | “Race and Ethnicity in the United States” Andrew M. Manis, Associate Professor of History, Macon State College, Fulbright Fellow, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki |
| 19:15–20:00 | Panel: “Immigrants and minorities in Europe” Immigrants in Europe Kalliopi Chainoglou, Teaching Assistant, Department of International and European Studies, University of Macedonia Minorities in Europe Iakovos Mihailidis, Assistant Professor of Modern and Contemporary History, Department of Modern and Contemporary History, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki Moderator: Theodosios Karvounarakis, Associate Professor, Department of International and European Studies, University of Macedonia Discussion |

Friday, April 3, 2009

Civil Rights in U.S. and Europe – Looking Forward

- 16:30-17:00 Arrival of Students, Registration
- 17:00-18:15 Lecture: “President Obama and a Post-Racial America”
David Goldfield, Robert Lee Bailey Professor of History, University of North Carolina – Charlotte
Discussion
- 18:15–18:30 Break
- 18:30-20:00 Panel: “Immigrants and Minorities: The Contemporary Legal Aspect”
The European Court of Human Rights
Paroula Perraki, Professor, Department of International and European Studies, University of Macedonia
Immigrants and Minorities in the EU Legal Order
Vassilis Kourtis, Lecturer, Faculty of Law, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
Mobilizing European Human Rights Law on behalf of Minorities and Immigrants
Dia Anagnostou, Assistant Professor, Department of Balkan, Slavic and Oriental Studies, University of Macedonia
Moderator: David Goldfield, Robert Lee Bailey Professor of History, University of North Carolina – Charlotte

Saturday, April 4, 2009

The Student Movements and Counter Cultures

| | |
|-------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10:00–10:30 | Arrival of Students, Registration |
| 10:30–11:15 | Lecture: “Youth Culture and Student Movements in Modern American Civilization” John R. Dean, Professor of American Studies and Cultural History, University of Versailles, France Discussion |
| 12:00–13:00 | Written Exam |
| 13:00–14:30 | Lunch |
| 14:30–15:00 | Certificate award ceremony Closing of Seminar – brief remarks by Dr. Karvounarakis and Dr. Goldfield |

Consulate General of the United States of America in Thessaloniki

Journalists' Union of Macedonia and Thrace
5 Stratigou Kallari street, Thessaloniki